

DATA PROTECTION AND PRIVACY POLICY

The new General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), which will enter into force on 25 May 2018, lays down the rules on the protection and processing of personal data directly applicable to all entities that process such data, in any Member State of the European Union. By providing your personal data, you agree to its collection and processing under this Privacy Policy.

The information collected from your visitors is maintained in accordance with this Privacy Policy so that we can ensure careful handling of all personal information, including the information we collect and how we use it.

Data Collected

When visiting our website you do not need to provide any personal information.

We collect only personal data (name, email address), through our contact form, voluntarily provided by visitors, for commercial purposes, namely for sending budgets or answering questions and requests for information.

As holder of these data, you have the right of access, rectification and deletion at any time, by expressing your will using the email geral@molditindustries.pt or sending a letter to our Registered Office located in Zona Industrial UL/Loureiro P. O. Box 28, 3720-903 Loureiro, Oliveira de Azeméis.

Data Recipients

Moldit Industries is the sole entity responsible for the processing of personal data collected under this Privacy Policy. Personal data will not be shared with external entities, with the exception of the other companies of the group, whenever this is essential for the cross-linked and interconnected relationship.

Right Holders

Data subjects may access, rectify or request their final deletion by written request sent to our contacts.

You can also make a formal complaint to the competent authority, which in Portugal is the CNPD (National Data Protection Commission). For other information, please, visit the following link: <https://www.cnpd.pt/>.
